KRABI

◆ Wat Tham Suea - The Tiger Cave Temple in southern Thailand serves as a religious site for the monks who live and worship there, and features a maze of natural caves in an overgrown jungle valley. This Buddhist complex is also popular with believers and travelers. Here, you can enjoy the views of the surroundings, and admire archaeological findings, which include stone tools, pottery remains, and the mold allegedly used to make Buddha's footprints. Take your time to climb over 1,200 steps leading to the summit, and join a guided tour to visit the caves and learn more about the temple.

◆ Khaothong Hill is a cafe-restaurant which offers breathtaking views of Phang Nga Bay islands, one of the most beautiful bays in Thailand. It's beautiful all day long but can become magical at sunset!

◆ THE MUD CRABS SCULPTURE - Located in town at Khanap Nam Pier on the edge of the Krabi River, Krabi's Large Black Mud Crab Statue, named The Mud Crabs Sculpture, consists of a huge crab and smaller ones around.
